

Salisbury Conservative Association

Annual Christmas Dinner

With John Glen MP & Special Guest
The Rt Hon Lord Jonathan Hill CBE

A note from John Glen MP

We are delighted to announce that the Rt Hon Lord (Jonathan) Hill CBE has agreed to address the Salisbury Conservative Association Annual Christmas Dinner on 5th December 2024.

Jonathan is a deeply respected figure in the Conservative Party - after a brief spell in the Conservative Research Department and time as Special Advisor to Ken Clarke Jonathan served in No 10 as Political Secretary to PM John Major (1992-1994). He then built up and sold his own business before being appointed to the House of Lords to serve as an Education Minister under Michael Gove in 2010. He then became Leader of the House of Lords and served as our last European Commissioner for Financial Services from 2014-2016. Since then Jonathan has held a number of consultancy roles and has been lead Non Exec on HM Treasury's Board and Chair of The Ditchley Foundation.

After our historic defeat in the 2024 General Election Jonathan has agreed to attend our dinner and our MP Rt Hon John Glen MP will interview Jonathan to discuss his thoughts on lessons from the past and thoughts on the next steps the party must take on our journey back to power....

Jonathan is married to Alex, he has three grown up married children and lives in the Salisbury constituency in Ebbesbourne Wake.
